The Field of Waterloo. Here is depicted the battle-field of the famous Battle of Waterloo, fought on June 18th, 1815, under the commands of the Duke of Wellington and Napoleon, the forces numbering about 67,000 and 72,000 men respectively. To the left of the picture can be seen the mound surmounted by the Belgian Lion, and the scene of the great battle has changed but very little since then.
